JOINDER OF METHODE ELECTRONICS, INC. TO MOTION AND BRIEF OF ATS
AUTOMATION TOOLING SYSTEMS INC. FOR RELIEF FROM FOURTH ORDER EXTENDING TIME TO SERVE COMPLAINT

Methode Electronics, Inc. ("Methode"), by and through its attorneys, Locke Lord Bissell & Liddell LLP, hereby files this Joinder (the "Joinder") to join in and adopt, with respect to the above-captioned case and adversary proceeding, the arguments set forth in the Motion and Brief of ATS Automation Tooling Systems Inc. ("ATS") for Relief from Fourth Order Extending

Time to Serve Complaint [Docket No. 20699] (the “Motion”) and in furtherance thereof, Methode states as follows:

1. Methode files this Joinder as a protective measure to preserve all of its rights, arguments and defenses, including those arising under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b), with regard to the above-referenced case and adversary proceeding. The facts and arguments set out in the Motion are substantially the same with respect to Methode, except as amended herein, such that any relief granted for the benefit of ATS should be granted for all others who are similarly situated, including but not limited to Methode.

2. Specifically, this Joinder is intended to preserve Methode’s rights to seek relief from the Fourth Extension Order on the additional or alternative grounds asserted in the Motion, to the extent such grounds have not already been asserted in any of the First or Second Wave Motions to Dismiss and replies in support thereof in which Methode has joined. Further, this Joinder is made without prejudice to Methode’s right and intention to file an Opposition to Plaintiffs’ pending Motion for Leave to Amend, together with all arguments which are appropriately made in that Opposition.

3. Methode expressly reserves all of its rights, remedies, arguments and claims, and nothing in this Joinder shall be deemed to be an election of remedies or a waiver of any of Methode’s rights, remedies, arguments and interests to pursue, amend or modify any claims or defenses against the Debtors or any other party relating to these chapter 11 cases, this Adversary Proceeding or any other legal or administrative proceeding.¹

¹ The rights that Methode reserves includes, but is not limited to, all of its rights under 28 U.S.C. §157(d) and the right to challenge any findings of fact entered by the Bankruptcy Court.

WHEREFORE, in the interest of judicial economy, Methode files this Joinder to join in and adopt the Motion and for the reasons set forth in the Motion as qualified herein, Methode seeks an order of this Court:

- (a) Vacating or setting aside the Service Extension Orders; and
- (b) Denying the Debtors' motion for leave to file an amended preference complaint against Methode.
